

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Innovative Housing Opportunities Announces Leadership Transition

Santa Ana, Calif. — October 26, 2026 — Innovative Housing Opportunities (IHO), a nonprofit affordable housing organization dedicated to creating and preserving high-quality affordable communities, today announced that Rochelle Mills will step down as President and Chief Executive Officer.

“On behalf of the Board of Directors, we thank Rochelle for her leadership and commitment to IHO and the communities we serve,” said LaShanda Maze, Chair of the IHO Board of Directors. “We are grateful for her many years of service.”

“It has been an honor to serve as an ambassador for IHO for these twenty years,” said Mills. “I’m proud of what we built together and excited for IHO’s future.”

To ensure continuity and maintain IHO’s focus on its mission and the communities it serves, the Board has appointed Elizabeth Selby as Interim Administrator to oversee the organization’s day-to-day operations during the transition. With more than 25 years of leadership experience, including roles with the Los Angeles Mayor’s Office of City Homelessness Initiatives, Community HousingWorks, and the Los Angeles Housing Department, Selby brings extensive experience in affordable housing and community development.

“As we look to the future, the Board is evaluating the organizational structure, resources and partnerships that will best position IHO for long-term sustainability, greater scale and continued impact,” said Maze.

Additional information regarding IHO’s leadership and strategic direction will be shared as appropriate.

About Innovative Housing Opportunities

Innovative Housing Opportunities (IHO) is a nonprofit that develops high-quality, affordable, mixed-income homes paired with resident services that help low- and moderate-income residents achieve stability and economic mobility. Learn more at www.ihocommunities.org.

For more information or to have a media inquiry directed to the appropriate spokesperson, please contact Liz Selby at eselby@InnovativeHousing.com.